

spoken about Palmer; I said let us go into the lodge and see him and we went in. As we went into the lodge he was in the room without any clothes on at all, very cold teeth chattering.

Ques. What time in the evening was this.

Ans. Somewhere from 10 to 11.

Ques. Where ~~was~~ taken to. Ans. He was in the north-east corner room of the middle lodge, he was taken across into the east verandah room.

Ques. Were you there the next day. Ans. No sir; probably was not there for a week. I saw him once afterwards.

Ques. Was Mr. Palmer quiet that night when he was taken out. Ans. Quiet; he was curled up on the floor.

Ques. Had he been violent every other time, you had seen him till this night. Ans. Yes.

Ques. Do you know what sort of a night that was.

Ans. I am very sure it was a cold night. All I can remember is that we called the man cold; I know his teeth chattered.

Ques. Do you know his condition had been one of violence for weeks before and changed this night suddenly to a condition of quiet and remained after
