

him every day and talk with him.

Ques. Was his room leading right out of your ward.

Ans. It was for the last two or three days he was there in the lodge.

Ques. Was he at one time under your charge as attendant.

Ans. Yes sir.

Ques. Did Mr. Palmer to your knowledge ever suffer from cold in any lodge room. Ans. Not to my knowledge. He never said he was cold, I used to ask him.

Ques. Was he ever to your knowledge put into the lodge without any clothing. Ans. Not put in without any; sometimes he would take it off.

Ques. While you were his attendant was he ever taken out of the lodge at night, suffering from cold.

Ans. Not to my knowledge.

Ques. From your situation could he have been put into the lodge and staid and suffered from cold without your knowing it in some way, at the time or afterwards. Ans. Not in the day time without my knowing it.

Ques. Could he at night. Ans. No. The watchman had charge then.

Ques. Were you familiar with the men who attended him when you did not. Ans. Yes. I roomed with Chadwick
