

Monday, January 23, 1837.

Order from the House of Representatives, instructing the Committee on the Judiciary to inquire whether any, and what alterations are necessary in the several laws of this State, regulating the admissions of Counsellors, and Attorneys at law to practice in the S. T. Courts and C. C. Courts—read and passed in concurrence.

Order from the House of Representatives, directing the Secretary of State to furnish the Committee on the North Eastern Boundary with such maps and other documents, relating to the subject as may be within his control—read and passed in concurrence.

Order from the House of Representatives, requesting the Governor to obtain from the proper officers of the Historical Society of Maine, a loan, for the use of the Legislature, of the evidence, proceedings, and documents of the Commissioners under the fourth article of the treaty of Ghent, which were deposited in the Library of that Association, by the American Commissioners—read and passed in concurrence.

Order from the House of Representatives, instructing the Committee on Accounts to inquire into the expediency of allowing Joel Bartlett, Twelve dollars and Sixteen Cents, the balance due him for erecting a Gunhouse, in Harmony in 1836—read and passed in concurrence.