

He said Haskell does not let me sit at the table long enough to eat my vituals, he cuffs my ears, and I believe he will kill me. Said I how long has it been going on; he told me. Said I you come up here to the attendants door; he says I dare not. Said I come up; he came up. I said to this man have you been abusing Chris Wood; he says it is none of your business. Said I, I will make it my business; he says you dont let him sit at the table long enough to eat, that you abuse him and I want to know whether it is so or not. He says, that is something that does not concern you. I says it does concern me, and I am going to stop it; he says how are you going to stop it. Said I, in the first place I will have you reported and you will be turned off, and previous to your being reported I will give you such a thrashing that you will be sorry that you ever saw such a man as I am. The fellow says I dont want any trouble; says I, neither do I, but you are not going to beg Chris Wood; the matter rested there. I said nothing to Dr. Hallaw on this condition that Mr. Wood should be well used. I made it a point to know whether he was well used, he said he was