

advocated having a clean ticket; folks knowing that I had been there said what do you say to Dr. Harlow, has not he been there long enough; I might have said possibly he has.

Ques. Do you think he is as good a man as they can have there. Ans. You hunt the state over and see; you will have to hunt pretty snug, too.

By Mr. Baker.

Ques. Are there outside doors communicating directly to the lodges. Ans. Yes sir.

Ques. If there was a fire you could get directly out doors from the lodges. Ans. Yes sir.

Testimony of Dr. Henry M. Harlow

By Dr. Eaton.

Ques. I notice on page 286 of the report of this year, something about the causes of insanity. "The use of alcoholic stimulants has long been reckoned as a prolific cause of insanity" etc. Do you refer to ardent spirits. Ans. To alcohol in whatever form.

Ques. It ought not to be used in health, and I am persuaded after many years of observation that it
