

a crack at those Lincoln Swells - with their grand house furniture - I should be glad to chip in 10. or so. I got a feel they thought you had neglected them, they certainly believe themselves custodians of all true Narragansett history.

I mean to write to Leo Shay, but haven't yet - am a bit out of gear here at the club. a hope that The Lady Vice would not stick it long at 447 isn't realized.

Sincerely

Wm B. Cabot,
