

Old Hannah, squaw of no name, as scolds

Old White Hat, ^{strong inferior}
Brassoway Joe Tomer's wife

White Squaw, mother Francis White-Squaw's son and Sebastian White-Squaw's son.

^{clearly heptemic says she was the daughter of a priest - long ago}
^{of some seeds with} Old Dizzy, a misce character with a twitching face used to say I'm by soul, Mr. Harry

Elizabeth Lyon

"Old Hannah with the mitered hand" must have been Betty's mother, ^{rather a Francis na heptemic} ^(Father mixed up the Indians with the heptemics)

Old Betty, the terror of my childhood, a drunken old beggar. She was a ^{heptemic} ^(a heptemic) & a sister to Joe Drury.

^{she m. Frank Sock now was killed in an hour (say down)} who was also a heptemic. "Some say I'm foolish, but my sister Betty she's more foolish nor I be.

In her will of Joe Drury's given at Carleton
Joe Drury, so clear says was father of Sebastian Drury (but doubtful)

Margaret Nuttall was Dr. Sebastian Nuttall's wife d 1888

Juliana Raccon was Allean Raccon's widow. I saw her in 1887 ^{a pleasant old woman; also the widow of} ^{who she said she was 49 years old, a very neat}

Paul Moly who was then 49 yrs. old, a neat, thin little black-eyed woman. The two came together to my house.

Lame Pete, a cripple

Newell Kentaway.
notes p 1815

(Kentaway appears a Gen. John Bullis