

1004.

It was understood that for a little while in the morning and at night he was to wheel a few loads for me and dump about one load of ashes for me. And I had the privilege of ordering him when he did that

Q. But you hadn't the privilege of cuffing him or throwing water on him. A. I didn't consider that I had.

Q. Nor of painting his face. A. No sir.

Q. Nor, what we call in vulgar language, of "bossing him round". A. No sir.

Q. You never did it. A. No sir.

O. B. Bakin, recalled.

By Mr. Baker:

Q. You are the Steward and Treasurer are you. A. I am.

Q. You keep the books and an account of the supplies furnished parties in the way of clothing. A. I have them kept under my care.

Q. Will you show to the Committee what clothing was furnished to Peter Barnes during the years of 1879 & 1880, each item. Will you give the book? A. This is
