

March 1st 1881, 2½ O'clock.

The committee on the Insane Hospital met in the Representatives Hall, according to adjournment all the members of the committee but Mr. Sargent being present.

Testimony of D. B. Kimball.

By Mr. Baker.

Ques. Have you kept a night record of the temperature in the various halls. Ans. I have for sometime back; make the record three times during the night at, 9, 12 and 3 O'clock.

Ques. The regulation temperature by day is from 68 to 72.

Ans. Yes sir.

Ques. You have here the record book which shows the temperature; each hall is kept by itself. Ans. Yes sir. First page Upper male, 1st, 2nd & 3^d halls,

Mr. Baker: I find the lowest temperature registered is at 3 O'clock in the morning, and they run from 60 to 70. In the lower male in the month, the lowest one I see is 62, on the 19th. In July I find one instance 62.

The temperature in the lodges, at 3 O'clock in the morning runs from 80 degrees down to 62.

Ques. Whether the temperature of the lodge halls is warmer
