

and I did to throw every obstacle in the way of the friend succeeding in bringing it about. — I do think they had not ought to be Commenced a new until at least there <sup>are</sup> signs of their being reconciled to the new Government and to speak more Respectful of it than what they have done.
I will enclose a list of the names again that you may have them before you to Advertise to the Co uncil if you see fit.

and I beg you will pardon me for entreating this long letter on your Pardon.

and believe me Sir to be your Friend & Humble Servant

Thomas Peggler