

Ques. Do you not usually inquire into the motive of the young men. Ans. Not always.

Ques. May you not have done great injustice as you did in this case. Ans. I dare say. I rather the attendants would suffer than the patients.

Ques. You would not do injustice to the smallest thing.

Ans. No sir. I may err sometimes.

Ques. 40 degrees would not be a comfortable temperature for a man without bedding. Ans. No sir.

Ques. What degree of temperature do you usually sleep in.

Ans. It goes almost cold enough for water to freeze.

Testimony of Dr. S. Baker.

By Dr. Baker.

Ques. Have you several times visited the lodge halls and lodge rooms at night to ascertain as to their temperature.

Ans. Not but once; I went then with Mrs. Leuimly, sometime in March of last year.

Ques. Did you go without any notice to the officers.

Ans. Yes sir. Our visit was as late as 11 or 12 O'clock; we started on our rounds about that time.

Ques. Were you there in the building. Ans. Went there ~~at~~
