Dear Mrs Ekström,

I had to get your letter of the 12th, I was doubtful, from what you said, about the use intended for the Dickson Rasker.
You citing forms I was not attracted your translation of Truscupus, but similar forms are interesting to me & I usually test them out. The ending hardly appear on fish names but in connection with fluo, curaco, & some other meanings you will wish them. There is a Triscor in the Penguin that I can't connect with felis, though it might be used that way; a different root. Aubing has kyrnakkys, not a fish word, or that I can see, sværk. As to manches
