

Q. There were four times when you killed beef which you didn't think was fit to eat and was not eaten? A. No, sir, it was not eaten. I have been at work in the field the most of the time I have been there. That is my business. Could not tell how many hogs were raised there last year. We kill none but those raised on the place. I butcher all <sup>the hogs</sup> we have there no butcher. Whether they buy any pork or not I could not tell. That is out of my line of business.

Q. Give us some idea about how many hogs are eaten on the place?

A. 65 or 70 a year I should say.

Q. You have a very good piggery haven't you? A. Suits us very well there.

Q. Pigs are good healthy pigs? A. Yes, sir.

Q. After they are butchered do you know what becomes of them? A. No, sir.

Q. Are they all sold? A. I could not tell you. The cooking is out of my line of business. I know nothing about them after they leave the slaughter house.

Q. How many boarders, on an average,
