

him. I never kicked him. I swear I never did. I have tossed a few cinders at Pellet, fooling with him. I never hurt him. I have thrown a little water at him and hit him. Could not pay how many times. I have thrown water at him a number of times, perhaps once within the last 6 months. I never hit him with my hand in no way. Beques does not work under one now.

By Mrs. Baker:

Q. Why not? A. I wish to have him taken away and have a man employed there who was hired. I requested it. I wrote Dr. Barlow a letter.

Dr. M. Barlow, recalled.

Mrs. Hall: I asked Dr. Barlow if he recollect of going in the morning to a patient whom he didn't find in her apartment but gone where else. And didn't she throw a soap dish at you?

Witness: I don't remember.

Q. Whose husband is now a member of this legislature, I want say of which
