

an unkind man in his treatment of those who worked under him. Ans. So far as anything I know, I think he is a kind man.

Ques. You knew Mr. Dixie. Ans. Yes sir.

Ques. Was he under your immediate charge. Ans. Yes sir, I knew him well.

Ques. Was he a man who liked to work. Ans. Yes, he used to ask to go out to work every day.

Ques. Did you ever know him to be overworked or hurt with work. Ans. Never heard him complain.

Ques. If he was working out in the sun and wanted to be cool, did he know enough to go into the shade.

Ans. I think he did.

Ques. Was he ever compelled to work. Ans. Not to my knowledge.

Ques. What was your observation with reference to him, that he was better off or worse for working.

Ans. I think he was better off for going out to work.

Ques. Was Mr. Palmer on the upper floor and when put into the lodge put into the upper lodge.

Ans. Yes sir.

Ques. Is not the upper lodge always the warmest of the three. Ans. Yes sir.