

He was conducted by M^{rs} Strickland to the Governor and Council, before whom he took and subscribed the oaths required by the Constitution to qualify him to enter upon the discharge of his official duties, and took his seat at the Senate Board.

33.

On motion of M^{rs} Greene,
Ordered, that when the Senate adjourn, it ad-
-journ till to-morrow morning at ten o'clock.
And the Senate accordingly

Adjourned.

Attest, William Frapton, Secretary.