Dear Mrs. Estlin,

I hon your letter, shock as it is. Funny, you can see three 8 camps, perhaps too many together, contain too many names pitched at them at once; drunk or not: not worshipp's Vatromik remarkable - but it is absurd.
The only way is to do it quietly, one name at a time & no hurry, & the expit-tine for it. I did get something out of Perua & Nicolau by leading ^{the} ~~the~~ 6 or 8 miles with them but the other way is the thing.

^{peag}
^{question} my-peag was only a shot, & the run of 3, & sent you was only a fluff in the hang-on after our free.

I hon organized what I brought off;
put the Hist. Soc. stuff into Eng. or French.

Indian, about 350 titles & the Indian words, into Eng. ^{or} R, make 485 titles.

A useful lot, & with the scrapings from Peruab, & Passam. I sent you make such a bunch of name help. Now I don't think you but happiness for with drudg'
