

4th/6

to you, and grant you a safe and pleasant return to your families and friends, there to enjoy all the sweets of domestic <sup>life</sup> under a government of good laws, rightly and justly administered — my best wishes attend you and your families.

The Senate, on motion of Mr. Redman of Hancock

Adjourned

Attest, William Trafton, Secretary.

I hereby certify, that the foregoing is a true record of the proceedings of the Senate, made up from the minutes by me taken, and from the papers on file.

Attest, William Trafton, Secretary.