

might have more and some days not <sup>but</sup> ~~so~~ ~~much~~ very few; depend upon the work we are doing.

Q. I suppose when they are out in the field they are under you? A. No, sir, they are under the hired help. I put them at work of course. I am the head man of 4 or 5 different crews, all round seeing to them. But still they are under my charge.

Q. Generally they went with the hired men
 A. Yes sir.

Q. How much hired help did you have in haying on an average last summer?
 A. Some 9 or 10.

Q. Is the engineer your brother? A. Yes sir.

Q. You have been there 15 years and seen these men out in the field.
 Have they always been kindly treated all these years? A. Yes, sir, they have.

Q. Ever see any of them that were overworked
 A. No, sir, I never did. We are not in the habit of overworking them.

Q. I don't suppose they do much, but fatter round do they? A. Their work really doesn't amount to much.

Q. Have you ever seen any of them unkindly treated
