

of a wash basin. Could not say it was more than once. Should not suppose the basin was very clean. The water he gave him to drink was clean. I saw Samson hand him the basin with water in it. There was not a bowl there out of which Peter habitually drank. There was a bowl there but Peter didn't drink out of it.

Q. What did Peter drink out of?

A. Of a pail there; but this was in the engine room where he got the water out of the wash basin.

Dont know what Samson paid when he handed him the dish to drink out of. Dont know how long ago that was. It might have been one or two years ago.

Dont know what remark he made. All I know about the matter is that I saw him do it.

Q. Were they laughing and joking with one another at the time?

A. Peter doesnt laugh and joke a great deal. Some times he will get
