Dear Mrs. Eckstrom,

I enclose your two Purjee letters, with Thanks. Curious how those names juggle together - Purjee & Pyncheon at Springfield, both conspicuous.

The way I got to looking at Kumbunk as a punchy word was by running into Nepancket, or Nepeuncket, R. "near C. Nat. dike." may not be the Km - R. but sets the form, which looks wot to me. Close to one decidedly not Nippenucket, or Neapnucket, here. I should say that Kumbunk R. (Biddeford est.) was quite a good fit with the wot meaning.
It seems reasonable to take the nip-
