

Cat-pat. There was a Recogouchee Indian of the name of Quatre Pied, (or so at least he was always called by the Canadian French) but our lumbermen transformed it into Catpat.

But "the legs" was never an Indian name Allen's Indians & the British notes to 1815 from "Sebbell's deq."

Brassoway Joe Tomah, tall, thin, more coat only, without shirt, had the ugliest wife in the tribe. Brassoway Joe's wife was called upon the seven dead father of me and Tom Francis, Grace Francis, and Mary Francis the celebrated girl who married a Joe Francis of the Quoddy tribe Tomah Joe Tomah

Tomah Nicole ^{husband?} son of Mary Math Nicole -

Paul Squawpence

Brassoway = Joachim (Joachim)

John Benwit or Pennywright (corruption of Benoit) great beam hunter (a boy at N.H. died some time for Peter Brassoway's dog and his squaw and son in Peter Benwit)

↓ Socabacin Hepteme, a eagle so called to distinguish him from Socabacin ^{the} ~~Socabacin~~ or One Hand, brother of above Gr. Socabacin ~~Socabacin~~ was a 'single man' - remember both.
One hand was grandfather of Clara (Mittell's nephew)

Hevel Cloasian, the great Indian doctor -

Sappial Pool Susap, (name called Paul) because his name was Paul!
He was the artist Indian - He painted the picture of the suspension now in the Lake

Tomah Sebattis, a leader Indian

Sebattis Lister = Mr. Sebattis Mitchell

Sebattis Wassus = Gr. Sebattis Mitchell

↓ Attean Raccoon was lame, stuff leg. Mitchell Chatquah (deejit)
Susan Raccoon
Louis Snake
Joes = Padushek (Steady hand)
Joe Sepsis (i.e. Bird) written to Joe Lenny.