

284.

to inquire if any additional provisions are necessary in prohibiting actions from being brought in the name of fictitious plaintiffs - read and passed, in concurrence.

One motion of Mr. Littlefield. Ordered that the Joint and Special Committees of the two Houses report on all subjects referred to them on or before the 10th day of March next - read and passed.

Sent down for concurrence.

Petition of William W. Thomas and others, praying to be incorporated by the name of the Portland and Boston Lumbering Association - read and referred to the Committee on Manufactures.

Sent down for concurrence. Concurred.

Petition of William Cobb and others, praying for the abolition of Capital Punishment - read and referred to the Committee that have under consideration the Resolves for the amendment of the Constitution - in concurrence.

Remonstrance of Bryan Williams and others, against the petition of James Fuller for a toll Bridge across the Sebasticooke River in the town of Palmyra - read and referred to the Committee on Roads and Bridges in concurrence.

Communication from Joshua Gould, Clerk