

from the superintendent that there had been some bad meats go into the halls

A. Yes sir.

Q. What would he say to you on such an occasion? A. He cautioned me against it. One time he told me if there was any more went in that I should be discharged

Q. He insisted upon having good meat

A. Yes sir

Q. Was there any one else who was holding official responsibility in the kitchen for this meat? A. No sir.

Q. You were given distinctly to understand that point were you? A. Yes, sir, I was.

Q. And you think the superintendent called your attention to the fact that the meat was tainted? A. Yes sir.

Q. It was not originally bad meat? A. No sir.

Q. But had become tainted? A. Yes sir.

Q. What season of the year do you think this was? A. The first time I think was in Aug.

Q. You think there was more than one time that your attention was called to it? A. There were two. The second one was in October.