

mostly by clergymen and cobblers.

One type of word I think is rather despicable Ymaue - the terminal -iggin, oggin, egan, Sebascooggin, Androsoggin, Eggenoggin, forms of ending that I do not quite understand, unless the so-called "Euphonic" element is here found to make the words sound pleasing!

This brings me to the salutation "How" - as preparatory to a libation - and I think I will go to the Club and be a good Judean for a while over a bit of liquid refreshment.

Very truly
