

Q. Were they in the room when you came back A. I found them there when I went in and they remained there while I went out after the Dr., with the patient.

Q. Did she lose her insanity at all when she went into the sick room

A. In some respects she seemed better for a while, and then she went back into the same state.

Q. Did she ever lose her mind

A. Not entirely

Q. Didnt she become so she didnt need constant watching A. Yes, at times she would be quiet

Q. How long would she be quiet A. Perhaps some days

By Mr. Baker:

Q. When you spoke of her condition being plain to be seen when you went in you mean of course as it then was A. Yes sir.

Q. Might it a few moments before have been not plain at all to see A. Yes sir.

Q. It might have required a personal examination a few minutes before A. Yes sir.
