

testifies this - also M. Bracket of Brunswick knew this to be the case -
- now more than 90 years old if alive.

Joseph Libby's reports are to the same effect - see also Dya Davis's letters Henry Dyer's and David Abbot's depositions and E. Davis's tend to prove the forgery of the above deed of Sunday's to Small.

Suppose their deed not a forgery, if our Committee think their deeds dated ninety years before Small, fully establishes their right and title to the land between the Crapees.

From the above statement your Committee are of opinion that the proprietors holding under Bridget Phillips have the best title to the lands between the Crapees, and recommend a speedy and vigorous assertion of their rights.
