

Some years ago a drunken Indian came to the house who said he could make 200 pairs of moccasins in one day. He said that our Lord had left word that moccasins would always be wanted, "yo moccasins and baskets, coz when you wear 'em out me pair, muss' lan nother me. Them very good word."

He explained who he was by saying that Sebastian Deane's wife was his mother; his wife was Maria Sankes' daughter and Peter Stanislaus was his father-in-law, a charmingly impossible combination.

He had been hunting all the fall; had caught 400 Otter, 175 Munk. Said also "You see my mbe he pick me out all Oldtown Injuns coz me was bes' lookin one an' coz me speak berry good Inglis."

Natanies, Natanes - a family of that name in Gen. Blake's Roster Lewis (Ketchum says that Sol Keptum (Gov. John's son) married a Natanies; that Frank Soche was Betty Natanies, who was Old Betty, the town & me childhood. Frank Soche was killed in the war - Clara says Natanies means "muddy water". It was the Natanies crew, who the Keptum was had the high boxes. (Lynn) Wine. Lewy remembers a Michel Wine

Soche tablet - Lewy used to hear the name long ago. I think it is "Soche Island" & that Soche was the man
