

for your eye. Ans. No sir.

Ques. Did you get along pretty well with Col. Sweet.

Ans. Generally, except when he used to take knives off I had to take them from him; he did not like me very well for it.

Testimony of Dr. S. Cooke.

By Mr. Baker.

Ques. Do you know anything about the man there today with a black eye. Ans. I was going through the hall this morning and saw a man with a black ^{eye} and inquired how it happened; he said that Longbellow a patient that stood near by struck him. I did not inquire any further.
