

occasionally, paid no attention to it.

Ques. What did you understand to be meant by churning. Ans. I never had anyone explain it that used it.

Ques. It was once applied to a man to control him, was it. Ans. I suppose so.

Ques. Did you ever see a patient over there that was not treated kindly. Ans. No, not by an attendant.

Ques. Ever see a patient kicked. Ans. No sir.

Ques. Did you ever see a patient slapped, or any marks on a man after he had been slapped, kicked or struck. Ans. I do not remember any particular case. I have seen a man bruised, saw one with a black eye today, do not remember his name.

Ques. Did you ever see a man over there, except this one you saw today who had any marks of violence on him. Ans. Yes, where it was done by other patients; do not remember any particular case.

Ques. Did you see half a dozen men who had marks of violence there, during your connection with the hospital. Ans. Yes sir.

Ques. Did the trustees ever make you any recompense
