

Even as long ago as when my father was a child, the Indians always spoke of their "dividends" their "bounty" their "outfit" & their "supplies" shunting the latter into "sprys" + "Spore you spry us we sell you our fur"