

Sample 3-~~roots~~ of savagry, I believe in the sight of God they might be far whiter in spirit than many who have boasted of fame and fortune, and a white skin.

My God!
when I think of some of the things, many things that were done to those poor souls in the name of civilization for greed of gain, my blood turns to fire. Who wonders they hated a white face?

You speak of their being drunken. Who put the bottles to their innocent lips?

The superior white man; who took all their faith and trust and bartered it for a few trinkets, that they might
