

the country. You must not be astonished if he produces many hundred names.

Mr. Counsellor Emerson has a do-lery object in view in the appointment of a sheriff for Benbow county. He strongly wishes for General Trofton. He is I suspect prepared to convince the Gov. & Council that some rumours against Trofton are unfounded. Such, as that he is altogether broken down & unable to procure sureties should he be appointed.

Mr. Emerson is a man of few words & it is difficult
