

Ques. When you got to the lodge or were leaving it did you see Mr. Motherwell. Ans. I met him when we were coming from the lodge.

Ques. Was he present when you started with Mr. Whidden. Ans. I do not think he was; if he was I did not see him.

Ques. During all the time you were there, whether you ever saw a patient abused by an attendant.

Ans. I never did. I never saw any more force used than was necessary to take care of them.

Ques. Did you ever get abused by a patient.

Ans. I lost my left eye there. Mr. Stackpole was then night watchman, he called me, said Mr. Thompson was making a noise I should have to remove him to the lodge. We went and unlocked the door and opened it; he said if I came in he would kill me; he had a vessel in his hand; I pushed the door open and he struck with the vessel and broke it, and then jumped against the door; Mr. Stackpole's lantern went out; I pushed the door open, and Mr. Thompson had a piece of the vessel in his hand and struck me over the left eye, costed the sight. If I shut my right eye I can tell light and
