

Copy of letter.

My dear father -

I want marry Susan [Susan?] cause he love me, cause Susan rich, cause we don't want be 'bliged work all our days. My dear father, what make you talk so? We used think you knows something'
 Now you remember who took care of it - you that miter Bath. x x x. Spere on marry Susan I shall glad myself and you shall glad yourself x x x x

Huan
Paël

My dear Mauf. I was very much pleased to get a fine letter from you. I shall write you 'bout hunting'
 I shall write you 'bout hunting in Totigue Pine. We have killed me caripou etc. We send me love & —
 — and some sparrows.

A common superscription was "Dear Sir Hussy."