

Ans. I did.

Ques. What were your opportunities for observation while you were a member of the visiting committee. Ans. I think during the two years I was a member of that committee that I visited the institution once every month with perhaps one exception; I made it a point to visit it at least once a month. I made other visits. Our visits were intended to be unexpected.

Ques. Had no stated times of going. Ans. No, only as by arrangement between the members of the committee.

Ques. Did you notify the officers of the Asylum when you were coming. Ans. As a rule never. I think upon one or two occasions I did telegraph them I would be there, in order that they might meet me.

Ques. Who served with you on that committee.

Ans. Chas. Buffum of Arno and Mrs. Louimby the first year, and Jeremiah Mason and Mrs. Louimby the second.

Ques. Did you usually go together. Ans. We have all been there together, Mrs. Louimby and I used to frequently visit together, and occasionally alone.

Ques. Did you ever have occasion to go to the Asylum in the night. Ans. I have.

Ques. As a member of the visiting committee were you
